LONDON, 15th August.

In France, the Council of State has declared that Boulanger is not eligible for a seat in the Chamber of Deputies, and that his supporters have been guilty of conspiracy against the Republic.

Messrs. Dillon and Rochefort have been convicted of conspiracy with Boulanger, and also of subornation of the State funds.

THE CRETAN QUESTION. ROME, 14th August. Intelligence has been received that the Mussulmans have sent an Italian sailor at Candia, the capital of Crete. The warship Italy has therefore been ordered to proceed at once to Candia.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 7th August. Complete anarchy now reigns in Crete. There is a constant conflict between the Mussulmans and Christian population. The Greek Government has sent a diplomatic mission, urging the Powers to interfere, otherwise they will be obliged to protect their own subjects.

No. Power has yet proposed concrete action in the Crete question, and it is understood that the Cabinets have decided not to allow the report to assume such proportions as will menace the peace of Europe.

England has sent a very guarded reply to the Greek Consul, with reference to Crete. The effect of the reply is that England can in no way encourage the attitude of Greece.

VIENNA, 15th August. The Politische publishes a telegram from the Constantinople correspondent, to the effect that the Porte has proclaimed a state of siege in Crete.

LONDON, 15th August. The Great Powers are discouraging any interference on the part of Greece in the disturbances at Crete.

Turkey denies any responsibility in reference to the insurrection at Crete.

Latest news from the Island of Crete states that the disturbances still continue, and that there is a great amount of violence and bloodshed. The Turkish Government appears to be quite unable to quell the disturbances.

THE CAMPAIGN IN THE SUDAN. CAIRO, 15th August. News from the Upper Nile reports that the Egyptian troops are encamped at Sarra near Wady Halfa. General Grenfell will return to Cairo on the 10th instant. Colonel Wolcott reports that the British leader is on a hill near Wady Halfa, with 200 men and 50 camels laden with water.

It is expected that 2,000 British will surrender to General Grenfell.

In the late conflict, 17 men of the Bristol Regiment were killed and 13 others were more or less wounded.

LONDON, 15th August. General Grenfell, on searching several of the prisoners who were captured in the recent engagement, discovered important documents, seriously implicating several Egyptian officials holding important positions.

THE GREAT AFRICAN EXPEDITION. It is stated that Stanley, with 100 men and 3,000 followers, is nearing the coast.

LONDON, 15th August. A letter has been received from Mr. H. M. Stanley, the celebrated explorer, who writes in excellent spirits. He is at present camped on the eastern side of Lake Victoria Nyanza, and expects to arrive in Zanzibar in a few months.

AUSTRALIAN FORBES IN ENGLAND. LONDON, 15th August. Two Darling and Kirriam—the Hon. J. White's two Darling and Kirriam and Lady White's two Darling and Kirriam—were landed safely and sound from the Orizaba yesterday in good condition. It is understood that Mr. Dawson will remain in a few months.

LONDON, 15th August. Dawson, the celebrated English traveler, expresses himself highly pleased with the Hon. J. White's horses, which arrived in the pink of condition.

MR. W. ROBINSON AND THE GOVERNMENT OF ADELAIDE, 15th August. Sir W. C. F. Robinson, who is going to visit the Colony, has been interviewed, and stated that he does not intend to accept the Governorship of South Australia, as he believes that the climate would be prejudicial to his health. He has received another appointment.

RECENT ANTI-SLAVERY IN THE PACIFIC. SYDNEY, 14th August. H.M.S. Regent, which arrived from Samoa on Saturday, reports that Suwarrow Island was annexed to Great Britain by the commander of the Regent, and that the island is now known as the Phoenix and Union Islands. It is known as the Phoenix and Union Islands, and is now known as the Phoenix and Union Islands.

GENERAL EDWARDS ON THE ADELAIDE POLICE. ADELAIDE, 15th August. Major-General Edwards inspected the local Police Force on Tuesday, and expressed himself highly gratified with the general appearance and training of the men. He considered them one of the best bodies of men he had ever seen.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA AND ITS GOVERNMENT. PERTH, 15th August. The Perth Council has requested the Governor to send a delegate to England to facilitate the passing of the Bill enabling the establishment of a Constitutional Government. The Council has also asked Lord Knayth, who is now in the Colony, to become until responsible Government is established.

THE PERCH COMMISSIONER. LONDON, 15th August. A difficulty is being experienced in arranging for the visit of another Australian, and the project is likely to fall through.

THE HOUSE OF LORDS has decided that only income realizable in England shall be subject to taxation.

LORD CHARLES SEIGT has been appointed to succeed Admiral Fairfax on the Australian Station.

THE SHAH OF PERSIA is now visiting Germany. The Large Bay Harbor Scheme has been favorably received in London, and the project has been made by Messrs. Lucas and Ald, to construct the work for $500,000.

SEATTLE, 15th August. Seattle, whilst exercising on the Thames, collided with a large barge, and his boat foundered.

CHILI COPPER is quoted at 24 1/2 per ton, and the market is more firm. This is quoted at 28 1/2 per ton; market active.

Mrs. Alice C. Smith has been the prospectus of an Australian Mining Trust Company, with a capital of $500,000.

LONDON, 15th August. Sir Charles has been suffering from an abscess on the jaw, is now recovering.

In the House of Commons, Mr. Samuel Smith, M.P. for Fife, gave notice of motion for the rejection of the Bill granting recognition to Western Australia.

Archbishop Croft intends to pay a visit to Australia.

MR. GILLIES is now preparing evidence to Her Majesty the Queen in support of Western Australia's demand for Constitutional Government.

MR. J. L. FURZE, C.E., is suing the Telegraph for £10,000 damages for libel contained in an article in reference to flying machines.

ADELAIDE, 15th August. In the House of Assembly, Mr. Forwood Rose questioned the wisdom of the motion of the Government, in support of Western Australia's demand for Constitutional Government.

MR. KINGSTON, in reply, supported the motion of the Government, and maintained that the Government was a disgrace to the nation. The discussion proved fruitless, and the question was dropped.

We understand that the proprietors of the Daily Mercury are selling the right of the copyright, of course, goes with the purchase. The collection will probably be first taken round the provinces, and afterwards to America. An offer of £25,000 was made a short time ago for one of the pictures.
